

A pixelated, black and white graphic of the text "1500 IN 1500" with a plus sign in the middle. The text is rendered in a stylized, blocky font, reminiscent of early digital art or video game graphics. The characters are composed of various shades of gray and black pixels, giving it a textured, digital appearance. The plus sign is also pixelated and positioned centrally between the two "1500" numbers. The entire graphic is set against a white background.

A pixelated, black and white graphic of the text "1500" repeated twice, separated by a plus sign. The text is rendered in a bold, blocky font with a dithered or pixelated appearance. A horizontal line is positioned above the first "1500". The entire graphic is set against a white background.
